

Should You Buy a New or Pre-owned Car?

Pre-owned, new or new to you? Whether you are planning to buy a new or pre-owned car, it is important to understand the differences of each option. While a pre-owned vehicle can provide you with a more budget-friendly option, it might not be equipped with the latest and greatest features and technology. Check the pro and cons for each type of vehicle below:

Pre-owned pros and cons:

Pro: Provides savings in the initial cost of the vehicle, such as depreciation value.

Pro: Get into a luxury pre-owned vehicle for up to 30% less than it would be to purchase the new version.

Con: Warranty is usually expired (or close to), but the good news is you can often purchase extended coverage from your dealership or insurance company.

New vehicle pros and cons:

Pro: You are the first owner.

Pro: Everything is in working order, and you have the newest technology.

Con: You are paying top dollar to be in that new vehicle.

How Do You Negotiate With a Car Dealer?

There are four negotiating tips to follow:

Know your numbers to get a fair deal

Be careful with your words

Start low because it's easier to negotiate up than down

Stand firm on negotiating just the price of the car
